Restaurant & Bar Design Awards

The Restaurant & Bar Design Awards, now in its tenth year, is a globally recognised competition dedicated to the design of food and beverage spaces.

Entries from over 70 countries cover every imaginable space, from ships to airports, museums to burger vans, and from revered Michelin-starred establishments to the fleeting dynamism of pop-ups.

Past judges from hospitality, design and lifestyle include Tony Chambers (Editor in Chief of Wallpaper*), Alberto Alessi, Marcus Wareing and Thomas Heatherwick.

The Awards are followed by over 35,000 of the most influential architects, designers, lighting designers, restaurant & bar operators and media.

‘The Great Build’

With a different theme every year, the Restaurant & Bar Design Awards ceremony is a unique event strongly focused on ‘innovation’.

To celebrate the tenth year of the Awards, we will be inviting four previous Award winning designers to team up with their preferred fit-out partner to create a theatrically revealing Awards ceremony event called ‘The Great Build’ held in London at the end of September 2018.

Congratulations

I would like to congratulate the winners and entrants of this year’s Restaurant & Bar Design Awards. With nearly 1000 entries in our 2017 edition from over 70 countries, the quality of projects was as high as ever.

I would like to thank all our project entrant designers and operators for ensuring the excellent quality at this year’s Awards.

Special thanks to the judges, sponsors, set designers and event partners. I would also like to thank Ceri Richmond (Core), Simon Bristow (BCS), Rue Davies, my staff (especially Kirsty, Damien & Sue) without whose patience and attention to detail, this ambitious Awards would never happen!

I would like to thank Lucy Painter (host) for her motivation, inspiration, superb communication and a thousand other virtues.

2018 will be the tenth year of the awards and we have an amazing judging panel already organised. I am really looking forward to seeing the breadth of creativity that will enter the awards in the next six months!
